Written and composed by
WM. LINGARD.

Arranged by
CHAS. E. PRATT.

The first system of the musical score is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line with a whole rest in the first measure, followed by three measures of whole notes. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment starting with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic, featuring eighth-note patterns in the right hand and chords in the left hand. The bottom staff continues the piano accompaniment with chords and some eighth-note movement.

The second system of the musical score continues in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp. It also consists of three staves. The top staff has a whole rest in the first measure, followed by a measure with a fermata, and then a final measure with a fermata and a repeat sign. The middle staff features a piano accompaniment with a crescendo (cres.) dynamic, showing increasing intensity through eighth-note patterns and triplets in the right hand. The bottom staff provides harmonic support with chords and eighth-note accompaniment.

Well, of course I am in fun sometimes, 'Twas only the other evening, mamma took me to a ball, and bought me this new dress from Madame Wintle for the occasion, for mamma said, I must put on my best smiles and graces, for I was getting rather old and it was quite time I was off her hands, Poor mama, she always has my interest at heart. So after the Ball was over one dear young fellow began to address me, and I really thought he was going to propose, but another gent came in and spoild it all. and I've many times heard them both remark _____
